

Reward Offer in the Murder of Charles Dejon Finch

On December 24, 2013, Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputies responded to a call of an assault with a deadly weapon with one gunshot victim. Upon their arrival, they learned from witnesses that the victim, Charles Dejon Finch, was confronted by a motorist in the middle of an intersection on 12430 North Bullis Road in the City of Lynwood. Both Mr. Finch and the suspect exited their vehicles and had a brief argument where gang affiliations were heard being vocalized.

During the altercation, the suspect produced a firearm, shot Mr. Finch in the street and then fled in his vehicle. Mr. Finch succumbed to his injuries at the scene of the crime. There were witnesses present during the incident but the information provided has not produced substantive results.

Investigators hope that by offering a reward in this case, additional witnesses with information will be motivated to come forward to help apprehend and convict the suspect(s) in this heinous crime.
